Sunday Reflection

A good tenant in the vineyard in 1996

A great Irishman, Edmund Rice was beatified for a life of great love, generosity and holiness. Edmund was born in Kilkenny in 1762 and later moved to Waterford.

As a young man he was talented and energetic and soon became wealthy. In 1785 he fell in love and married Mary Elliott. However, his happiness was shattered with the tragic death of his wife just four years later. Mary died in childbirth and Edmund was left with a handicapped daughter. This shattering experience was to mark a decisive turning point in Edmund's life. Through the pain of personal loss, he began to realise that life had a deeper meaning. He spent more time in prayer and worked with those who suffered poverty and injustice. In 1802 he set up a free school for children from poor background. Having provided for his daughter, Mary, who was cared for by his family, he left his comfortable house and lived over the school. He became an inspiration to others and soon a religious community of Brothers were formed, dedicated to helping poor families, particularly in the area of education. Today he is honoured as a founder of both the Christian Brothers and the Presentation Brothers. The Edmund Rice story is a love story - love of family and country, love of wife and daughter, love of Christ present, most especially, in those rejected by mainstream society.

Prayer for Opportunity

Lord, I expect to pass through this world but once, any good I can do, any kindness I can show,
Let me do it now and not deter or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Please pray for the worldwide Synodal Meeting which is taking place in Rome during the month of October.
