32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Remembering our deceased friends.

What is it all, when all is told? The ceaseless striving for fame and gold. The fleeting joys or bitter tears. We're only here for a few short years. Nothing our own but the silent past, loving or hating – nothing can last. Each pathway leads to the silent fold. Oh! What is it all, when all is told? What is it all? A grassy mound, where day or night there's never a sound, safe the soft moan of the passing breeze as it lovingly rustles the silent trees.

Or a thoughtful friend with a whispered prayer may sometimes break the silence there, then hurry away from the gloom and cold. What is it all, when all is told? What is it all? Just passing through, a cross for me and a cross for you, ours seem heavy, while others seem light, but God in the end makes all things right. He tempers the wind with such loving care. He knows the burden that all must bear, then changes life's grey with Heavenly Gold. Oh! Yes, this is all, when all is told.
