Mission Sunday Reflection

A Third World person shares their vision of a missionary's role:

‘Walk with us, help us discover our own riches. Don't judge us poor, because we lack what you have.
Help us discover our chains. Don't judge us slaves, by the type of shackles you wear.
Be patient with us as a people. Don't judge us backward, because we don't follow your stride.
Be patient with our pace. Don't judge us lazy, because we can't follow your tempo.
Be patient with our symbols. Don't judge us ignorant, because we can't read your signs.
Proclaim the richness of your life as you share with us. Be with us and be open to what we can give.
Be with us a companion, neither walking behind or in front of us, in our search for truth and ultimately for God.
