Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

'Mine is not a kingdom of this world'

A fox had discovered a vineyard – but the vineyard was surrounded by a fence on all sides. The fox did indeed find a hole in the fence through which he wanted to enter. But the hole was too narrow, and he did not succeed. So, the fox fasted for three days until he became quite slim, and then he managed to get through the hole. Then he ate the grapes. But, in doing so, he again became fat. When the fox was ready to leave the vineyard, he did not succeed in getting through the hole. So, he fasted for another three days to become slim and when he did so, he managed to get out of the vineyard. Once outside, he turned toward the vineyard and said, "Vineyard, vineyard, how good you are, and how good are your fruits! All that is within you beautiful and praise worthy! But of what use are you? The way one enters you is also the way in which one leaves you." And so, it is with the world.

A Special Prayer

Lord, give us the certainty that beyond death there is a life where broken things are mended and lost things are found; where there is rest for the weary and joy for the sad; where all that we have loved and willed of good exists, and where we will meet again our loved ones. Amen.
