Sunday Reflection: 'For the measure you give will be the measure you receive back'

The students asked the rabbi how could they tell when night was ended. "Could it be when you see an animal in the distance and can tell whether it is a sheep or a dog?" "No," answered the rabbi. "Could it be when you look at the tree in the distance and can tell whether it is a fig tree or a peach tree?" "No, answered the rabbi. "It is when you look on the face of any man or woman and see that he or she is your brother or sister. If you cannot do this, then no matter what time it is, it is still night."

Bishop Donal Murray, stated that the Irish cities and towns were still in the night, if we failed to be welcoming to travellers, immigrants or refugees – or to anyone whose traditions were different from our own. He said: "At a time of increasing affluence we need to ask ourselves whether we are going to selfishly pull the ladder up after us and keep others at a distance – are we going to forget how many of our own people were migrants and refugees all over the world?"

Collection to support the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes will take place after Holy Communion at all Masses this weekend, Saturday 22nd February in Coronea and Sunday 23rd February in Arva and Killeshandra. Please support.
